Request for change of grade

In case you find inaccuracies in the correction that affect your grade, you can submit a request to change the grade. Please note that there is a difference between changing and correcting grades and that grading decisions cannot be appealed.

Change of grades is relevant when your grade is obviously incorrect. This means that there must be an inaccuracy that can be easily identified and quickly and easily changed. It is thus not a matter of re-correction of the entire examination but of reviewing defined areas in it.

A change may be relevant if the examiner missed to correct a question or a page in the examination, if the student inadvertently wrote part of the answer in the wrong space in the examination, for example the answer to question two under question one. Another reason may be if the examiner's assessment is incorrect, for example based on the current correction template. A change must not result in a lowered grade.

If, on the other hand, your case concerns the correction of typing errors, error summaries and other miscalculations, it will instead be relevant to a correction of grades. These matters are taken up directly when you collect your examination. You should therefore not fill in the form in these cases.

Workflow for changing grading decisions

In order for the request to be considered, it is important that you motivate and clearly define which part of the examination that is affected. Please note, that you should request a change shortly after receiving your grade and that you should not collect/pick up your examination until the new decision has been made.

The completed form is handed in to the person who handles the examinations, and the form is attached to your examination. The request is then handled at the department and the examiner decides on the matter. Any change is implemented in Ladok (by examiner or administrator). The student is notified of the decision and can then collect the examination.
